

Bill Dudley Named Principal

5-26-71

The Board of Education of the Wasatch County School District is pleased to announce Mr. Bill Dudley as principal of the Wasatch Junior High School. He will assume his new responsibility July 1, 1971. Mr. Dudley is a resident of Heber City. He was born and reared in Spanish Fork, where he attended the local schools.

Mr. Dudley spent two and one-half years with the U. S. Army. Most of this time was spent overseas. After returning home, he enrolled at Brigham Young University where he graduated in 1950 with a major in mathematics and a composite minor in physics and chemistry. He continued at BYU until receiving an elementary teaching certificate.

AFTER COMPLETING his work at BYU, Bill taught at Wasatch High School in the field of chemistry, physics and seventh grade general science. While teaching at the high school, Bill met Joyce Murdock whom he later married.

In 1953 Bill left the Wasatch High School to attend Stanford University. He completed his Master's Degree and was admitted into a doctoral program in guidance. His father was seriously injured in an industrial accident at the Ironton Steel Plant, and Bill left Stanford to assist his family in this crisis.

BILL THEN BEGAN teaching in the Salt Lake City School District in 1954. He taught mathematics and coached at South High School for five years, and was appointed as a counselor from 1959 to 1965. He was then selected by the Salt Lake City School District for a National Administrative Internship Program and concurrently working in graduate school at the University of Utah. This program financed his expenses for travel; visiting and observing school programs in Cleveland, Chicago, Las Vegas, and local innovative schools. At a National Convention, Bill presented a report on a program he developed and implemented as administrative assistant at the new experimental Southeast Junior High School in Salt Lake City.

AFTER TWO YEARS AT the Southeast Junior High School, Bill transferred to Highland High School as assistant principal in charge of curriculum and instruction where he has been the past four years. While at Highland, he has developed an independent study program, computerized registration and grade reporting system, and variable scheduling concept. He is presently working on scheduling for large group, small group and independent study concepts to be implemented.

Bill is presently serving on several committees in the Salt Lake City School District including the Executive Board of the Salt Lake Administrative Association, Fiscal Design Committee, District Certification Review Committee, Social Worker Evaluation Team, District Task Force on Critical Needs, Group Evaluation and Accountability at Highland High School. He has also been involved in two Behavioral Objective Workshops conducted by Dr. Madeleine Hunter from UCLA and Dr. Concord from Phoenix, Arizona.
